Wesleyan University

Echoes of San Juan Hill

A Film Screening & Talk of

Photo courtesy of Dr. Richard Glover

Join us for a special screening of San Juan Hill: Manhattan's Lost Neighborhood, a documentary directed by Stanley Nelson that explores the rich cultural history of a once-thriving New York City neighborhood that helped shape generations of Black artists, musicians, and cultural pioneers, including jazz legend Thelonious Monk.

Following the screening, engage in a conversation exploring the neighborhood's lasting legacy, the importance of preserving community histories, and the intersection of music, culture, and place.

Thursday, November 12th | 5:30 pm

Wesleyan University
Ring Family Performing Arts Hall
287 Washington Terrace
Middletown, CT 06459

Moderated By: Professor Garry Bertholf
Panelists: Sierre Monk, Thelonious Monk IV, Kerry Kincy, and Professor Noah Baerman

The Estate of Thelonious Monk

Event Sponsored By
Wesleyan University
JCCP, CFA, CAAS, and Music Department

San Juan Hill: Manhattan's Lost Neighborhood screened courtesy of Lincoln Center for the Performing Arts